

NEED: SERVICES AND PROGRAM SPACE

Services of all types, from life-skills to enrichment programs, was a major need

- Children's Programs: storytelling, support for parents and teachers, class visits
- Teen Programs: teen enrichment activities and space, education support, skill-building services
- Adult Programs: tax assistance, legal assistance, topical discussion groups, book clubs
- Family-oriented services
- Life skills: literacy, job training, information and referral services, outreach for non-English speaking patrons

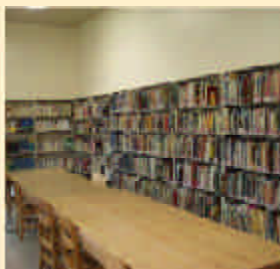

25

NEED: PROGRAM SPACE

Currently several areas of the City lack appropriate meeting facilities

- Main Library has only one multi-purpose room
- Collection is stored in the multi-purpose rooms in two branches due to lack of space
- Three branches have no meeting space, and two branches must share their meeting space
- Many branches' multi-purpose rooms are too small to accommodate programs

26

NEED: MORE LIBRARY SPACE NEEDED

Existing facilities are inadequate to accommodate current or future community needs, new technologies, and the need for a variety of services by Oakland residents.

27

NEED: MORE LIBRARY SPACE NEEDED

The Library's ability to provide needed library services will be severely constrained unless existing system is improved.

28

NEEDS ASSESSMENT

Major Conclusions:

- Materials, programs, and technology—as well as “people space” are all important to Oakland residents and compete for the same amount of space
- Service needs vary and are unique from area to area within the City, with some areas wanting more services and some wanting more materials
- Walkable network of libraries is very important to library users more people walk to their library than drive!
- Library vital in providing specialized services
Literacy, languages (Asian) life skills as well as enrichment programs

29

CHALLENGES

- unmet service needs
need more tailored traditional and new services
- facilities too small
need to improve many branches unable to provide full range of services needed:
books, technology, places to study, etc.
- facilities outdated
spaces to technology
- facilities inefficient to operate

RECOMMENDATION: MAIN LIBRARY

Main Library has three roles:

Draft System Vision
Oakland Public Library

- System support for in-depth resources not available at the branches. Support of the system, including acquisitions, purchasing, technology, etc.
- Public service component provides full-array of library services (computer lab, meeting rooms, adult, children, and teen spaces, etc.)
- Special resources for History and Government at Main
